

COLLIERS PROJECT LEADERS USA EXPANDS NEW ENGLAND TEAM WITH ADDITION OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR LESLIE FREDETTE

Boston, MA – February 13, 2025 – Colliers Project Leaders|USA, a division of Colliers Engineering & Design, is excited to welcome Leslie Fredette as Business Development Director in the New England region. Leslie brings extensive AEC industry experience as a business development professional, with proven expertise in strategic planning, market development, and team leadership.

Colliers Project Leaders is accelerating success in the Northeast and across the country, partnering with clients to lead, manage, and deliver complex projects of any scale, mitigating risk and maximizing value. In her role, Leslie will focus on expanding the firm's presence across New England in key markets including healthcare, life sciences, office, mixed-use, housing, transportation, infrastructure, and commissioning, while exploring emerging opportunities for growth.

"I am thrilled to join the Northeast team in delivering return on investment for our clients beyond the bricks and mortar and exceeding every expectation," said Leslie. "Colliers Project Leaders is intensively collaborative, client-focused, and results-oriented – perfectly suited to address the challenges faced by owners in a rapidly changing world."

"We are excited to welcome Leslie Fredette to our team. Her proven ability to transform organizations through strategic business development, coupled with her deep expertise across the AEC industry and remarkable track record of growing both talent and service lines, makes her ideal to help drive our next phase of growth," said Joseph Naughton, Regional Manager. "Leslie's demonstrated success in building high-performing teams and her comprehensive understanding of integrated design practices will be invaluable as we continue to expand our market presence."
